Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 1 hour per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. This agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information unless that collecton displays a valid OMB control number.

This information is used by HUD to evaluate: (a) the debtor's ability to pay the debt in full; (b) the ability to pay the debt in installments; and/or (c) justification for a compromise. Failure to collect the information would result in uneducated decisions in respect to the handling of debtor accounts. The Federal Claim Collection Standards states: If the agency's files do not contain reasonably up-to-date credit information as a basis for assessing a compromise, such information may be obtain from the individual debtor by obtaining a statement executed under penalty of perjury showing the debtor's assets and liabilities, income and expenses. The information is used to evaluate the individual debtor's financial position for the purpose of establishing payment plans and/or compromise settlements. This information is voluntary. The debtors are protected by the Privacy Act of 1974.

Privacy Act Statement: The Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) is authorized to collect all the requested information by 80 Stat.309, Section 3(b). The Housing and Community Development Act of 1987, 42 U.S.C. 3543 authorizes HUD to collect the Social Security Number (SSN). It will be used as a basis for assessing your ability to repay this debt. This information will not be otherwise disclosed or released outside of HUD, except as permitted or required by law or to appropriate Federal, state and local agencies, and when relevant to civil, criminal or regulatory investigations and/or prosecutions. The provision of the SSN is mandatory. Failure to provide some or all of the information may result in legal action to collect the debt. Completion of this form is not required. However, the information requested is required to obtain benefits. Please fill out this form or provide the information in another format.
